Auctioneer and Expert in Charge, Thomas Del Mar, said: "A record amount of people attended the pre-sale exhibition due to the diversity of items in the auction, therefore it was no surprise that the sale was well attended and the majority of telephone bidders was constantly busy throughout the sale of almost 500 lots. The outstanding quality and notable provenance of many of the pieces created magnificent prices across the entire sale. We were delighted with the overall result and look forward to the next sale on December 8."
